City Council Proceedings Enlivened by Mr. Mulvey and Mr. Hall.

POLE LINE QUESTION REMAINS UNSETTLED

More Ground Is Bought for Purposes of the City Storehouse.

With the exception of a tilt between Hall and Mr. Mulvey and a short argument on the Ninth East street pole proposition, the meeting of the city coun Tuesday evening was very quiet, and all of the routine work was disposed of The engineering and sewerage committee recommended that steel poles be installed on that street, which is now being paved, instead of wooden poles, which were previously authorized by the council.

Mr. Mulvey made a plea in favor of permitting the company to use wooden to enable it to make other arrangements to enable it to make other arrangements for handling the high tension wires on that street and also to give it ample time to secure the steel poles. He argued that if the council demanded the use of steel poles now it would tie up the paving for some time. He asked that the report be laid over for one week, so that some arrangement could be made between the council and the company in regard to the use of steel poles within the two years.

Mr. McKinney objected to any further delay in the matter and stated that the councilmen should have the courage to vote on it at once. He declared that it should have been settled long ago, and if the council insisted on dilly-dallying the paving would certainly be held up. He argued that the councilmen who opposed the use of steel poles should not be afraid to vote on the matter now. His remarks were greeted with hearty applause from the delegation of residents on that street who were present in support of their protest against the use of swoden poles. The report was fall over for one week upon request of Mulvey and Reed and the matter will have to be fought out again next Monday might.

Hall-Mulvey Tilt.

The tilt between Mr. Hall and Mr. Mul-vey arose over the consideration of the report of the waterworks convulties, which recommended the filing of the pe-tition of the property owners near Ninth East and Ninth South streets, asking that East and Ninth South streets, asking that some steps be taken to furnish them with irrigating water while Ninth East street is being paved, as the work being done there has cut off their suppy of irrigating water. Mr. Hall wanted an explanation of the committee "port, and in reply Mr. Mulvey stated that the matter had been attended to and added that it would take all night to explana matters to Mr. Hall, objected to the remarks of the work at once and supply the water required.

Hall objected to the remarks of Mr. Hall objected to the remarks of Mr. Mulvey and declared it the duty of coincilmen to inquire into such matters before voting on them. If the matter had been attended to, he insisted that the report should have so stated. This brought Mr. Mulvey to his feet with the statement that if the councilman would wake up and pay attention he would know what was going on. He then called Mr. Hail's attention to the fact that at the resulting a week ago the council digit at the first flug a week ago the council appropriated money to attend to the matter and authorized the superintendent of waterworks and the city engineer to do the work at once and supply the water resourced.

Mr. Hall again took exceptions to the remarks of Mr. Mulvey and declared them out of order and asked for a ruling from the president. President Ferry called Mr. Mulvey to order with the statement that councilmen should be more careful about language used towards each other. The report of the committee was then adopted.

One Hundred Members of Electrical Workers' Union Walk Out for Higher Wages

DEMAND AN INCREASE OF SEVENTY-FIVE CENTS DAY

Reported That Big Contract at Fort Douglas Has Been Tied Up.

signed a few minutes after the men had walked out.

The demands of the union are set forth in a circular which was sent to the employing electricians about March 15 of this year. This provides for eight hours work, minimum wage for journeymen, $4.50 a day; time and a half for overtime; wages to be paid weekly, no contractor to have more than one apprentice for each two journeymen, and the union shop to be recognized by contractors.

Affects Fort Douglas.

It is said that the largest job tied up is at Fort Douglas, where about forty-two men were on the payroll of the com-pany Saturday night. The Covey apart-ments's pob and the Moyle garage job pany Saturday night. The Covey apartments's pob and the Moyle garage job are also said to be tied up by the local electricians. The Etah hotel, the Newhouse hotel and the Kearns building are not affected by the strike, as the work has not reached the electrical stage.

C. B. Hawley, manager of the Intermountain Electric company, which employs about sixty electrical workers, said Tuezday that he knew little about the strike until the mon failed to show up for work Tuesday morning.

Sava It Is Surmise.

Says It Is Surprise.

"We received a letter from the local Electrical Workers' union dated March 15 some time ago, but paid little attention to it," said Mr. Hawley. "The first intimation that we had of anything wrong was when some of our men failed to show up for work this morning. Our company has a contract at Fort Douglas, and about forty men are employed. Of that number I do not know how many went to work Tuesday morning. I don't suppose there were many, however.
"As I have not given the matter serious consideration I am not prepared at the present time to give an opinion as to whether or not the demands of the local union are justified. All our firm can do is to await developments."

The Independent Electric company, by its manager, Lon J. Haddock, asserts that it is not handleapped by the strike of the electrical workers. Of the number of men employed by this concern only one walked out and his place was taken in a half-hour or so by another workman, Mr. Haddock said.

The demonstration was in charge of O. A. Skhimore, who was formerly connected with the city engineer's office.

In conclusion, Mr. Lyne discussed what results should follow the movement in Salt Laze City. He suggested that men's missionary clubs be formed in the different churches. "In order to carry out the work outlined at the convention," said Mr. Lyne, "36,000,000 must be raised. This has been apportioned to the different clurches. There are plenty of missionaries who are ready to go forth and preach the goapel, but they are compelled to await the raising of these funds. CENSUS ENUMERATORS HAVE MADE GOOD WAGES

Hugh A. McMillin, supervisor of the census for Utah, says his enumerators earned good pay in taking the census. The average, said Mr. McMillin, was not less than $5 a day. The taking of the census has cost, for Utah, approximately $900 a month up to this time, beginning in February. This month all of the field men will be taken off and only three men will be kept at work.

Mr. McMillin says that one enumerator in the city earned $100 in the two weeks of city enumeration. She was a woman and took the names in the northwestern part of the city, where the railroad shops are. One man in Murray, in approximately six weeks, made $150. He gathered 4000 names.
